

Stewardship Reflection

July 22, 2018 — Sixteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time
JER 23: 1-6; PS 23: 1-6; EPH 2: 13-18; MK 6: 30-34

“The Lord is my shepherd. There is nothing I shall want.” We are familiar with that scriptural quote from Psalm 23. Many of us have learned that and heard it since we were small. Many learned people maintain that it is the most quoted Psalm in the Bible. It is the recommended Responsorial Psalm on this 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time because it is so supportive of the other readings. It presents two important ideas: that we must place our trust in the Lord and that we inherit life from our Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

The Gospel Reading from Mark shows some of the dissatisfaction the Apostles evidently had with the huge crowds who followed Jesus (and thus them), but again it is this idea of shepherding that lies at the heart of it. We are told in today’s Gospel, “When he (Jesus) disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” In other words, He began to feed them.

Jesus was meeting the most essential need any of us have, to be fed with the Word of God. That is what we do during this part of our Mass; we hear Holy Scripture. These are the Words of the Lord. He is, or should be, our shepherd. He is speaking to us in this way, and He speaks to us in many ways. And we are His sheep.

Grace this Week, inspired by the Readings for July 22, 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Leader: Lord Jesus, we thank you for your Word. You invite us to go to a deserted place to be alone with you and to be refreshed and renewed. (Mk. 6:30-31)

All: Lord Jesus, we thank you for your gentle care for us. Help us to take time during the summer to be renewed in body, mind and spirit.

OR

Leader: Lord Jesus, we thank you for your Word. You have compassion on us and lead us through your teaching. (Mk. 6:34)

All: Lord Jesus, we thank you for your love. Help us to understand your teaching as we listen to your Word and do it.

Parish News

RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
 Are you interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Perhaps you've been attending Mass with your family or friends and are thinking about becoming a member of OLPH? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a spiritual journey of formation whereby adults are welcomed and received into the Catholic Church. The journey is supported by catechesis: teaching what Catholics believe; liturgy and community: attending Mass, experiencing how the community worships, listening to the stories of God's people and praying which is how we communicate with God; and service – how we live out what we believe. Please contact Pat Lemire at the parish office @ 780-467-5470 ext. 228 or email at plemire@olph.ca.
