Some recent words of encouragement from the Holy Father:

"The Rosary is the prayer of the humble and of the saints. In its mysteries, they contemplate, along with Mary, the life of Jesus, the merciful face of the Father. O, how much we all need to be truly comforted, to be wrapped in loving presence! We measure the truth of this experience through our relationship with others. At this moment, they are our closest relatives. Let us be close to one another, being the first to be charitable, understanding, patient and forgiving. Though you may be confined to your own homes, allow your hearts to expand so they may be available and welcoming to all.

The man born blind had his eyes opened by Christ.

Let us pray for the grace to see what is true.

Message from our Pastor...

Greetings my faithful but somewhat isolated brothers and sisters in the Lord. We have all heard more about social distancing, self-isolation, quarantine, washing hands thoroughly, and cleanliness, perhaps more than any of us thought possible or even necessary. Indeed, it is essential to implement and adhere to these practices where and when necessary. I am actually getting use to greeting someone and not automatically sticking my hand out to shake with them. Bottom line, it is one thing for us to pick up the virus, whoever and whenever. The problems increase exponentially when we pass it on through improper respect of and practice of prescribed protocols. We need to adhere to them diligently and faithfully.

My friends, many of us are spending much more time with our immediate families these days. Perhaps the Lord is inviting us to allow Him a more central place within our families. He is giving us time together, so yes, we should have family movie night, but yes, we can take this opportunity to invite him for dinner or for the rosary or simply for some prayer before bed. My friends, we know that God is in charge, we know that God will walk us through this challenging time. Let's invite Him into our homes. I guarantee that He won't mind being isolated with us. Please visit our OLPH (olph.ca) website and the Catholic Archdiocese of Edmonton (caedm.ca) websites. We continue to offer opportunities for prayer and Mass, and we encourage you to join us right from the comfort of your family room. Brothers and sisters, there is a tendency at a time such as this to feel a little bit helpless and even overwhelmed because we feel there is little we can do. There are indeed two key things all of us can do be part of the solution. 1. Follow all mandated health and hygiene practices diligently. 2. Pray, "His grace is sufficient for us," (2 Cor. 12, 8). Our God continues to walk with us every step of the way. Never lose sight of this truth of our faith.

God's blessings,

Fr. Jim

Fifth Sunday In Lent - March 29
Sunday Connection

First Reading

Ezekiel 37:12-14 God will open the graves and restore the people of Israel.

Second Reading

Romans 8:8-11 The Spirit of God dwells in you.

Gospel Reading

John 11:1-45 (shorter version John 11:3-7,17,20-27,33b-45)
Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead.

Reflection on the Gospel Reading

Jesus' promise of eternal life is a central element of our Catholic faith. Even though Easter is still two weeks away, our Gospel today invites us to acknowledge Jesus' power over death, evidenced in the raising of Lazarus, and to anticipate Jesus' conquering of death once and for all in his death and Resurrection. We sometimes use examples from nature to help describe this mystery of our faith. Jesus himself talked about the seed that dies when planted in the ground in order to produce new life (John 12:24). Using that image and others, we find hope and confidence in Jesus, the Resurrection and the life.

OK. I'm in a meeting right now, that's why i'm contacting you through here. I should have call you instead of mailing you but phones are not allowed to be use during meeting, I really don't know when the meeting will be rounding up so can you help me to get an iTunes gift card worth $400 at $100 or $50 denominations for a friend of mine going through cancer in the hospital. He needs the cards to download his favorite musics and videos to boost his confidence on his next phase of surgery and fight over cancer which he's going to undergo today but i can't do this now.

Can you get it from any store around you now? I will pay back as soon as i can. Thanks
God Bless, Rev. Jim, Pastor
