Slowly but Surely

My friends, by the time you read this, you will note that we do not have access to the sanctuary for our Sunday Liturgies. The small altar has been moved out of the sanctuary and now sits right in front of the sanctuary steps. We have removed a couple of rows of pews from section four and five, to provide some space around the altar. The reason of course, is that we are in the final stages of the “sanctuary beautification” tiling project.

The membrane that the tiles will rest on has been applied to the sanctuary, and beginning Monday morning, the tile will be installed in the sanctuary. We anticipate this taking four days, with the hope that we are back in the sanctuary for Mass the weekend of August 23-24. As is noted on the bulletin front page, the 8:30 morning and 6:15 evening weekday Masses will be celebrated in the parish hall, August 18-22 inclusive. For those of our faithful weekday Mass folks with mobility challenges, please feel free to park in the small lot outside the north door of the parish hall. Access to the hall will be via the steel hall entry doors, not the glass doors in the hall.

Another improvement this summer: The new ceiling fans have been installed, and I for one have noticed much better air movement within the nave (main body) of the Church. It is much more fun to celebrate the Holy Mass when one is not perspiring profusely. Thank you dear Jesus.

We were not able to manage it this summer, but another goal is to replace the existing carpet in the nave of the Church. It, like your pastor, is well past it's “best before date.” The plan is to install high quality rubberized flooring on the walkway areas within the nave and to install new carpet beneath the eight pew sections. We do not have a timeline on this yet. (We are debating doing it slowly, section by section; or simply as one large project that can be completed over a week or two.) We will also be coordinating a revamp of our lower ceiling spaces in the nave, where there is water staining etc. Presently, it is less than desirable to gaze upon while you are in your prayerful, reflective eyes-raised-to-heaven stance. Please stay tuned on these future improvements.

If you have the opportunity in the coming weeks, like next week for instance, please do take a walk through our parish hall and meeting rooms. The floors are exceptionally shiny. I know factually, they have never looked this good in my eight years here. I am sure it was many years prior since they had their last good wax-stripping and re-waxing. Our four students, who are employed through the Canada Summer Jobs program, have done a remarkable and beautiful job of the flooring downstairs; and in the sacristy and upper hallways as well. This has required serious elbow grease from these young people, and I am duly impressed with their work ethic and the pride they have taken in this very manual type of labor.

On a more beatific note, it is difficult not to recognize all the beautiful floral and horticultural efforts on the outer sections of our parish. I have been informed that we were nominated for Communities in Bloom recognition for the second year in a row. I am sure our outdoor specialist Olive P., and other gardening volunteers, are also pleased to have our summer students' help in making the exterior of our parish incredibly beautiful.

Finally, a brief update on our Affordable Seniors Housing project: Things are still happening in the background. The next step is to get the space west of the Church re-zoned for a complex of the nature that we have proposed. One of the challenges we face at this moment, is the municipal election happening in October. This will result in a slowing down of the process that County Council needs to go through for the re-zoning to occur. All this to say, patience is a virtue, and we are certainly learning about the challenges of this virtue!

My friends, we are moving in a forward direction slowly but surely.

Blessings all, Fr. Jim
