This year's theme, Born Tomorrow, highlights a sobering reality: in Canada, babies can be legally aborted right up to the moment of birth. Together, we will explore the urgent need for protections for children who are only days—or even hours—away from being born.

Guests will hear updates on abortion and euthanasia in Canada, learn about developments in the political arena, and discover practical ways to advance protections for vulnerable human life.

A safe space for people to ask real questions about life, faith & meaning.

What Happens at Alpha?
Connecting with others is how Alpha develops personal relationships with the Alpha grouping and with Jesus. All sessions start with a time to connect and build friendships, eliminating awkwardness and creating space for important conversations.

Watch a Video
Alpha runs weekly on Thursday evenings commencing September 10 through December 3, 2026. Weekly you will watch a short Alpha video exploring a big question about life and faith, like Who is Jesus? Or Why Do We Pray? Each video is designed to engage and to spark reflection and discussion.

Conversation
You'll gather with a small table group of people to discuss the video. Those who attend Alpha state that their discussions are the best part of the Alpha experience. No questions are off limits and there's nothing you can't ask! Best of all, Alpha is free to attend.

Personal Relationship with Jesus
A short Saturday morning session on October 24 is designed to provide an additional opportunity for each attendee to develop and secure a special encounter for a personal spiritual relationship with Jesus.
